IF THE

Tower

COULD TALK . . .

60th ANNIVERSARY

1953 CAULDRON

IF I, THE TOWER, could speak and tell of all I see around F.H.S. and all that I have seen for the past sixty years, what a tale it would be! Now, on my 60th anniversary, you will see in pictures what I have seen . . . IF THE TOWER COULD TALK!

THIS WOULD BE THE STORY

CONTENTS . . .

Activities	16
Sports	42
Administration and Students	60

*Today I see cool kids
... pash pies ... double bubbles ... deep pocket lads ... hot spooks ...

But I still remember ye olde Frankfort High Schoole in the days long gone by ... the steaming Stanley Steamer ... the rustling bustles ... the knee-high knickers.

I peeked into Central Hall and saw . . . a huge Sunshine tree . . . the bright lights . . . the gaily decorated windows . . . and the spirit of Christmas on the faces of all.

THE CONFUSION BETWEEN

I remember the Friday night dances . . . the classes . . . the Queens . . . the many club activities . . . the crowded halls . . . the messy lockers . . . the sports . . . Aughe's . . . the elections . . . the Prom . . . report cards . . . the convocations . . . the Hi-Y dance . . . library . . . rush between classes . . . the cafeteria . . . the endless chatter . . . the High Life . . . pep sessions . . . the studies . . . the intercom . . . all the many everyday events that really make up school life.

One of the most impressive convocations is always the Hi-Y Easter Program with its hymns . . . prayers . . . meditations.

The big moment . . . the kiss . . . Carol Brammell . . . Phil East . . . careful Phil . . . Nancy's watching.

CLASSES

I could tell about the Friday night dances . . . the struggle for tickets . . . "Hot Toddy" . . . "She Wears Red Feathers" . . . "Oh Happy Day" . . . "Why Don't You Believe Me!"

The cokes . . . ping-pong . . . checkers . . . the after-game chatter . . . Grads home from college . . . the occasional conga lines . . . hokey-pokey circles . . . stag lines . . . "Goodnight Sweetheart" . . . then the happy couples going home.

*Bats . . . devils . . . weird lighting . . .
music . . . formals . . . dance contest
. . . this could only be the Hi-Y Semi-Formal Dance.*

THE BIG

*Friday afternoon . . . short periods
. . . Howard Hall . . . the noise . . .
the band . . . the cheer leaders . . .
the pep talks . . . the skits . . . Bah-ney's locomotive F . . . YELLING!*

WHEELS - - - SENIORS

Being the Tower, I see everything . . . the sports . . . the strained expressions . . . the fighting spirit . . . the boys lined up against the wall . . . no girls allowed . . . the Big Broadcast . . . the rehearsals . . . Buck's pep talks . . . then the first show . . . the faithful school bus . . . usually on time . . . everything.

THE

*I saw the Coronation Ball . . . the voting . . . the Grand March
. . . the crowning . . . the kiss
. . . the lovely flowers*

White slips . . . excuses . . . blue slips . . . pink slips . . . yellow slips . . . passes . . . alibis . . . and more alibis.

*Can't forget the Homecoming Queen . . . Katherine Goodwin . . . her court . . . the Queen's float
. . . the convertible . . . the Jay-Cee escorts . . . the flash of cameras . . . and,
of course, the game!*

CROWNING OF THE QUEENS

I managed to peek inside a few classrooms, too.
Health Class . . . diseases . . . "Susie" . . . anatomy
. . . mental attitude . . . charts.

Physics class . . . mechanics . . . heat . . . sound . . .
light . . . magnetism . . . force . . . motion . . . electricity.

Latin class . . . Rome . . . the Coliseum . . . "Cui bono" . . . Amo, amas, amat.

Art class . . . paint . . . landscapes . . . portraits
. . . posters.

BROKEN TUBES AND MINOR

Hoosier Madness . . . basketball . . . insanity between halves . . . the confusion . . . the Sunshine sellers . . . passouts . . . coat check booths . . . F Club booster cushions . . . S-T-R-E-T-C-H-I-N-G . . . People . . . and more PEOPLE!

Sunshine sales booth . . . popcorn "Have a coke?" . . . drumsticks . . . ice cream bars . . . no change! . . . smiles . . . the Sunshine girls.

S-N-I-F-F! That aroma could come only from the cafeteria! "Nuff said!"

EXPLOSIONS

Here are a few more sights I see from my place above the High School building . . . the eighth graders . . . the convocations . . . the mountains of Math Club papers . . . the crowd at Aughe's . . . the confusion before classes.

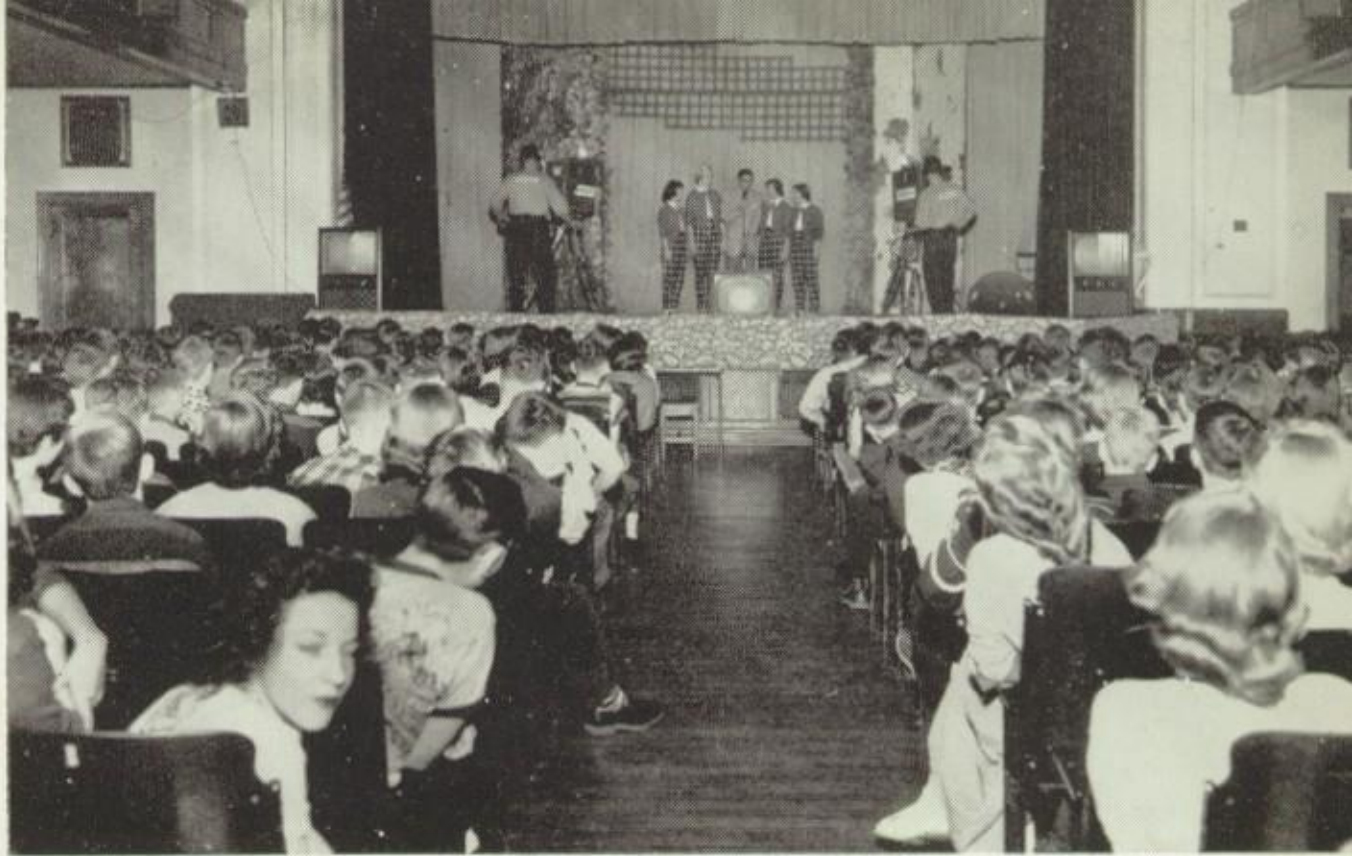

THE HOT RODS ON HARRISON

The tower sees the action in the many sports of F.H.S. . . . football . . . basketball . . . track . . . baseball . . . tennis . . . golf . . . cross country.

This is our new trophy case . . . donated by Fred Petty . . . our other cases were getting crowded . . . we are proud of it.

*I saw the T. V. Convo . . . the cameras . . . the kids . . .
Given's imitations . . . twirling . . . Melo-aies . . . the T. V. "kiss."*

*The Nighthawks . . . the cold fall nights . . . the band marching . . . the nice hot popcorn . . . the cheering crowd . . . Go, go, go, go . . . the tackling
. . . the Homecoming game . . . the Queen . . . the passing . . . touchdowns . . . blocking . . . first down
. . . the long runs . . . the muddy field . . . the bright lights . . . the wins . . . the loses . . . all are part of football in F.H.S.*

I saw the blue and white formals . . . the announcement of the winner . . . Sue's surprised look . . . Basketball Queen.

NATIONAL HONOR

Being elected to the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is the greatest honor a Frankfort High School student can claim. Only seniors and juniors in the upper third of their class are eligible for membership. The basis of membership is: CHARACTER, LEADERSHIP, SCHOLARSHIP, and SERVICE. The members have a luncheon in the cafeteria once a month, sponsor a dance once a year, and undertake other useful activities.

Here are the officers who have led the way for this year's F.H.S. band. They are Janet Jones, Frank Starr, Lynn Jones, Larry Kelly, Danny Hayes, Jim Wheeler, Marilyn Wainscott and Tom Ham.

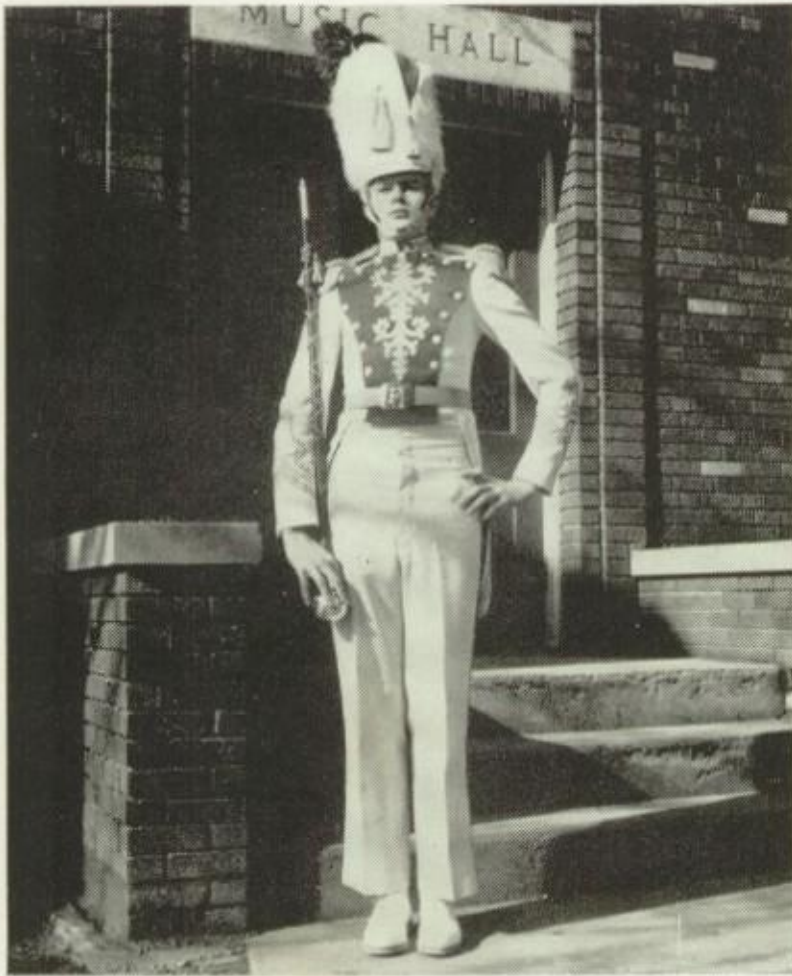

F. H. S. BAND

Concerts . . . football games . . . basketball games . . . state contest . . . marching practice . . . pep sessions . . . drills . . . parades . . . these are a part of the band's activities.

The band, led by Mr. Aden Long, marched and played for the football games this year. Their intricate drills entertained the crowds of people at the half. The spectators also looked forward to their playing between halves at the basketball games. The band annually puts on concerts, enters the District and State Solo and Ensemble contests, and participates in other activities, such as civic parades. This year our band brought the Warsaw Band to Howard Hall for a concert.

DRUM MAJOR

Watching the marching band of F.H.S., I see the stately drum major, Jim Wheeler. Jim, a senior, has led the band very successfully and deserves much credit for his work. Jim plays the saxophone in the band.

Majorettes

All of Frankfort High is proud of their sparkling majorettes. They have added much enjoyment at half time of our sports events. They are: Janet Jones . . . Leone Mc Mullen . . . Glenda Webb . . . Janet Ham . . . Kerry Breeze . . . Marlene Posey.

ORCHESTRA

"As I sit here reminiscing about the years gone by, I hear music floating over the campus. It is the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." This is one of the many things for which the orchestra is most remembered. This and the Spring Festival, the Senior Play, and the Fall Concert make the F.H.S. orchestra more popular every year.

CRESCENDO CLUB

Senior Class Play - - -

Roaring twenties . . . smell of the grease paint . . . "Hello Charlie" . . . lighting . . . ticket sale . . . raccoon coats . . . stage props . . . flappers . . . bobbed hair . . . costumes . . . "Lindy" . . . dress rehearsal . . . these are just a few of the words that ran through the minds of everyone who participated in the Senior Class Play . . . "Family Circle!"

Donna Dickey as Cornelia Otis Skinner, young would-be-actress, did a wonderful job as the lead in the class play this year . . . congratulations, Donna!

Since 1911 Sunshine has been one of the prominent organizations in our school. This year's officers are Shirley Swearingen, treasurer; Berta Irwin, corresponding secretary; Carol Brammell, president; Carol Gaffney, vice - president; and Nancy Boggs, recording secretary. The sponsors are Miss Evelyn Bond, Miss Sally Foster, Miss Hattie Campbell, and Miss Edna Miller.

Sunshine Society

The Senior Sunshine girls are the ones who, in this their final year, have led the society in their many activities.

The Christmas party for the little children again proved to be a very happy affair, with Santa Claus himself to pass out the gifts.

The Sunshine sales booth provided cokes . . . popcorn . . . ice cream for the crowds at the games. It takes a lot of time and work to sell.

Other Sunshine activities include the distribution of Christmas baskets . . . the Riley Hospital fund Friday night dance funds for charity drives . . . rummage sale . . . attending church service.

HI-Y CLUB

Top, standing—Neil Conner, chaplain; Dick Baker, sergeant-at-arms; Eddie Innis, vice-president; Phil DePoy, president. Seated—Joe Sneathen, treasurer; George Ginn, secretary.

Bottom Middle—David Robertson, Bill Vanderkleed, Gene Emery, Rich Locke, Don Reigle, Jim Bailey, Bob Bailey.

The Hi-Y, fifty-one strong, which is sponsored by Mr. Bahney, has finished another successful year.

Their creed stands for clean speech . . . clean living . . . clean sports . . . clean scholarship.

Their many activities include the Hi-Y book store . . . football refreshment stand . . . Hi-Y formal dance . . . Thanksgiving program . . . Easter program . . . church attendance . . . Hi-Y Sweetheart . . . picnic . . . candle-light meeting . . . pencil machine . . . Hi-Y'er of the year.

Here are the big wheels of this year's Cauldron staff, who worked the poor staff members to mere skeletons, but who also worked themselves. They are Nancy Louck, assistant editor; Phil DePoy, business editor; and Charles McCall, editor.

Cauldron

Standing—Nancy Louck, Charles McCall, Patra Redman, Judy Clark, Joan Power, Bill Vanderkleed, Phil DePoy, Helen Smith, Carol Brammell, Ed Innis.

Seated—Dorothy Lowe, Joanne Kimmell, Donna Dickey, Tom Lowe.

I'd like for you to meet the ones responsible for this year's book, who have given their time . . . brains . . . patience . . . tears . . . sweat . . . and sleep to get the Cauldron out.

The high school paper, "The High Life," was edited this year by Jane Tansey, editor, and Helen Smith, sports editor.

Familiar phrases such as these may be heard throughout the year in sixth period journalism . . . "Deadline tomorrow" . . . "What's my head?" . . . "don't forget the flag line" . . . "Check your beats" . . . "Go get galley" . . . "Where's the cut line?" . . . 30.

F.H.S. student's life.*

"Looking out toward Stott Field, I hear the cheering of the Nighthawk fans . . . I see the Blue and White uniforms of our team as they drive down the field for a touchdown.

The Frankfort Nighthawks go charging down the field . . . it's a touchdown! . . . then "Golden Toe" Petty kicks for the extra point . . . and the score is 7-0, in our favor.

Frankfort Nighthawks

Varsity Football

Physical Exams . . . Running . . . Blocking . . . Tackling . . . in preparation for the 1953 schedule . . . Carlton, Richmond, Jeff of Lafayette, Kirklin, Logansport, Anderson, Kokomo, Tech, West Side, Mooseheart.

This year I saw a team with spirit and courage, never giving up until the final whistle was sounded. I remember well the game with West Side, which was undefeated and ranked third in the state; Frankfort showed them a determination that will never be forgotten. Superior running by the backfield, plus tremendous line play downed the Red Devils 12-7. Frankfort's gridiron season ended with wins over West Side, Kirklin, Logansport, and Charlton—losses to such powers as Kokomo, Jeff, Mooseheart, Anderson, Tech, and Richmond.

First Row—F. Campbell, G. Collier, C. Smith, B. Haney, B. Bailey, J. Osterhoff, P. Nicholas, B. Laverty, L. Swope, J. Storm.

Second Row—L. McCoy, O. Spaulding, D. Sanders, E. Innis, B. Vanderkleed, J. Bailey, R. Locke, G. Ginn.

Third Row—J. Eaton, student manager; G. Retterbush, D. Hinton, E. Servies, L. Reed, D. Robertson, P. Dupler, G. Pierce, B. Larrimore, P. Eaton, D. Kort, J. Downer, student manager.

Fourth Row—V. Parker, T. Wilson, J. Wyenken, L. Camp, P. Kilian, B. Lipp, J. Hoyer, J. Smith, D. Brittain, G. Huff, L. Small.

Freshman and Eighth Grade Football

Hats off to these future Nighthawks! During the past season these boys showed great possibilities of becoming F.H.S.'s star gridgers. This year they defeated Jeff and Sheridan while bowing out to Jeff, Lebanon, and Tipton.

Freshman Football

Basketball

"F.H.S. basketball never dies . . ." This year was no exception to this saying as the Hot Dogs, under the supervision of a new coach, Marvin Cave, compiled an impressive record. Few will forget the afternoon of March 7, 1953, when the Hot Dogs downed their great rival, Jefferson of Lafayette, in a 52-51 double overtime in the regional tournament at Purdue fieldhouse. Leading the Hot Dogs was that famous "Fighting Five" of Riegle, Locke, Wain-scott, Ginn, and Armantrout. Ready to take their place at any time were Emery, Pierce, Dupler, and Ulm. No matter what the odds, Cave and his "Cavemen" always displayed excellent spirit and sportsmanship.

Track

"Hey, Joe! Let's go scratch cinders awhile." This is a familiar call around Frankfort High as soon as the snow melts off the sod. However, the boys who have hibernated from winter sports began to use some of their stored-up energy in Howard Hall before the weather was fit to be tolerated by thinly-clothed trackmen.

Coach Dorwin Dick's Blue Blazers started their season in March by participating in the largest indoor high school track meet in the world, the Hoosier Relays, sponsored by Howe of Indianapolis and held in the Indiana University Fieldhouse. After this the preparation for the various relays and invitational meets was completed by participation in four dual meets in two weeks' time. The greatest share of the load was carried by the five returning lettermen, aided by some very talented sophomores and juniors. Much hard work and determination resulted in a successful season for the Blue Blazers of '53.

Cross Country

Baseball

Bats . . . balls . . . mitts . . . catcher's mask . . . "Play Ball!" . . . "strike one" . . . "strike two" . . . strike three" . . . Your'e out!" . . . These are the phrases that make America's favorite game.

Row 1—Buford Haney, Jerry Smith, Donald Albitz, Phil East, Phil Nicholas, Tom Wilson, Larry Isgrigg.

Row 2—Aldon Dixon, Sidney Greer, Donald Riegle, George Ginn, James Ulm, Edward Servies, Gene Emery, Paul Kilian, student manager.

Row 3—Jerry Lipp, Phil McKenzie, Graden Loveless, Donald Rippey, Gary Robertson, Larry Bond, David Schultz, Larry Sheets, Lee Roush.

Baseball

Baseball has grown to be an essential element of springtime in America. Frankfort follows the pattern of the nation.

A large number of boys answered the first call of the new head coach, Bill Waddell, and his assistant, Marvin Cave. Among these were five lettermen and many fine-looking underclassmen prospects. Their preparation for the season started off with a bang with tiring drills in fundamentals for the first few weeks in Howard Hall. A rugged schedule of eleven games, nine of which were conference tilts, proved a real test for the much-improved Blue Sox. Because of never failing team spirit, the senior members of the baseball squad will leave F.H.S. with a sweet taste in their mouths.

Coaches

This year two new coaches were added to the Athletic Staff of Frankfort High School. Basketball coach, Marvin Cave, and baseball coach, Bill Waddell, joined with athletic director, "Buck" Rohrbach; football coach, Jim Baldwin; assistant football coach, Charles Heninger; track coach, Dorwin Dick; and eighth grade coach, Robert Ayers, to complete this year's staff.

F Club

Row 1—Kneeling: Ed Servies, Ed Innis, Gene Emery, Larry Reed.

Row 2—David Dick, Joel Storm, Don Kort, Jim Bailey, George Ginn, Joe Armantrout, Fred Petty, Don Reigle, Rich Locke, Bud Wainscott.

Student Managers

Paul Kilian, baseball; Mac, the equipment manager; Jan Downer, football; Ed Innis, track; Norman Spaulding, basketball; Donald Thompson, basketball; James Eaton, football.

Yell Leaders

The teams of our school would never be complete without the spirited yell leaders. Everywhere our football and basketball team went, these three were right there cheering them on to victory. Our yell leaders this year were Shirley Michael, Robert Harris, and Helen Smith.

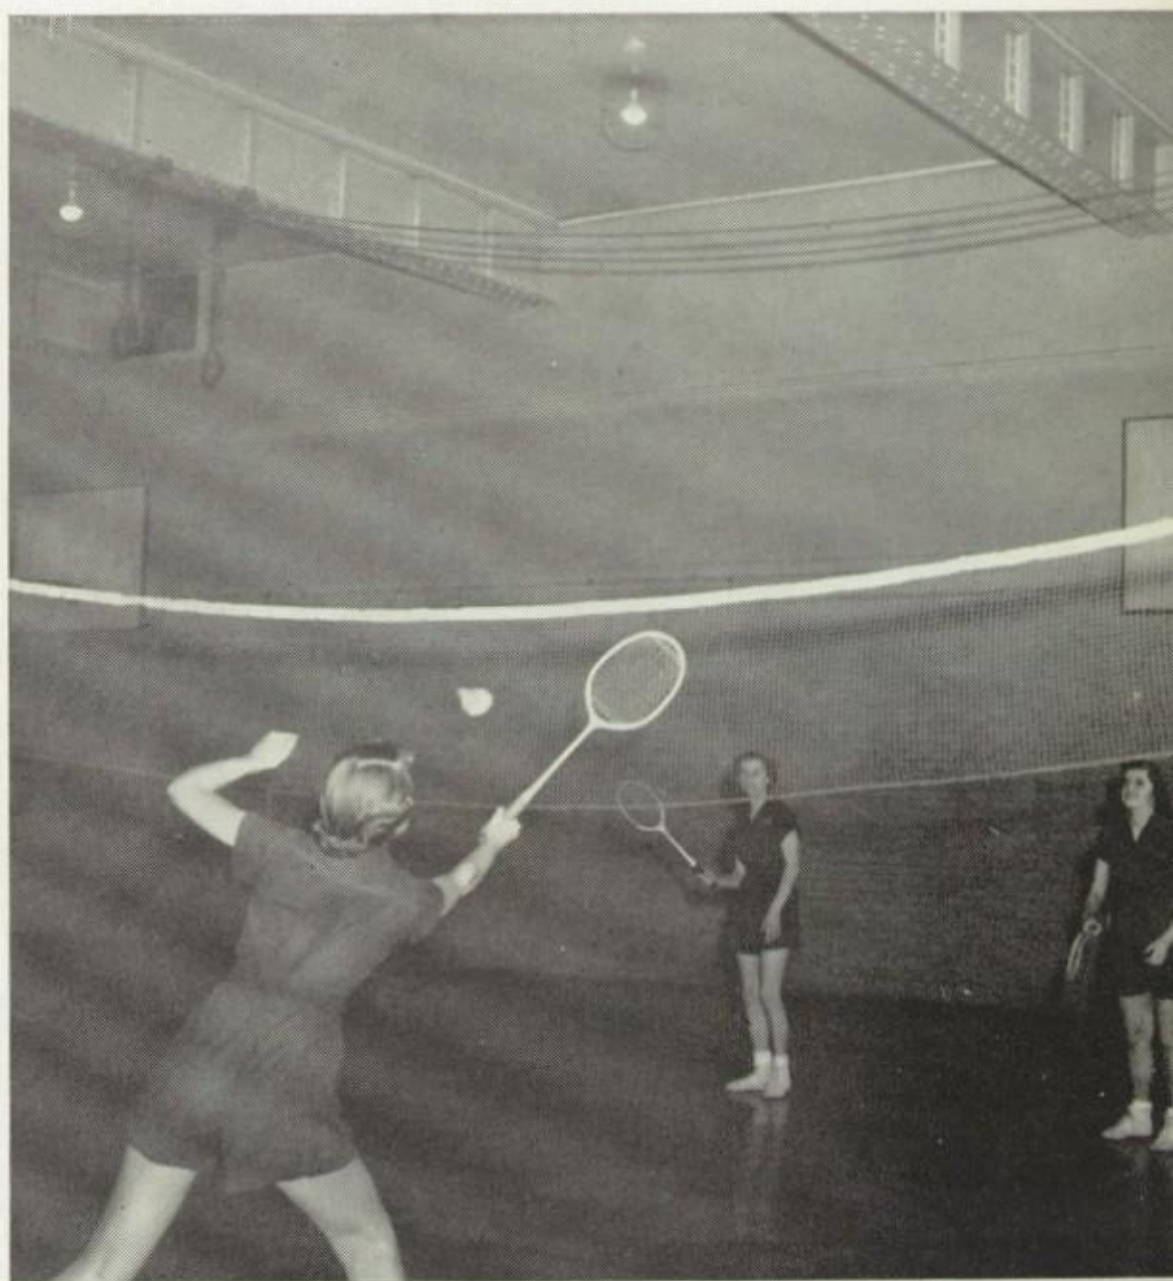

Girls' Physical Education

Miss Louise LeHew and Miss Sally Foster are the instructors of the girls' physical education classes. They train the girls in social dancing, folk dancing, and square dancing, as well as sports, marching tactics, and exercises. These activities do much in developing the minds and bodies of the girls.

This year the girls enrolled in physical education classes have participated in many new and different activities. These groups enjoy competitive sports, such as volleyball, ring tennis, lead-up basketball, soccer, badminton, and soft-ball. Such classes provide relaxation and education as well as opportunities to make new acquaintances.

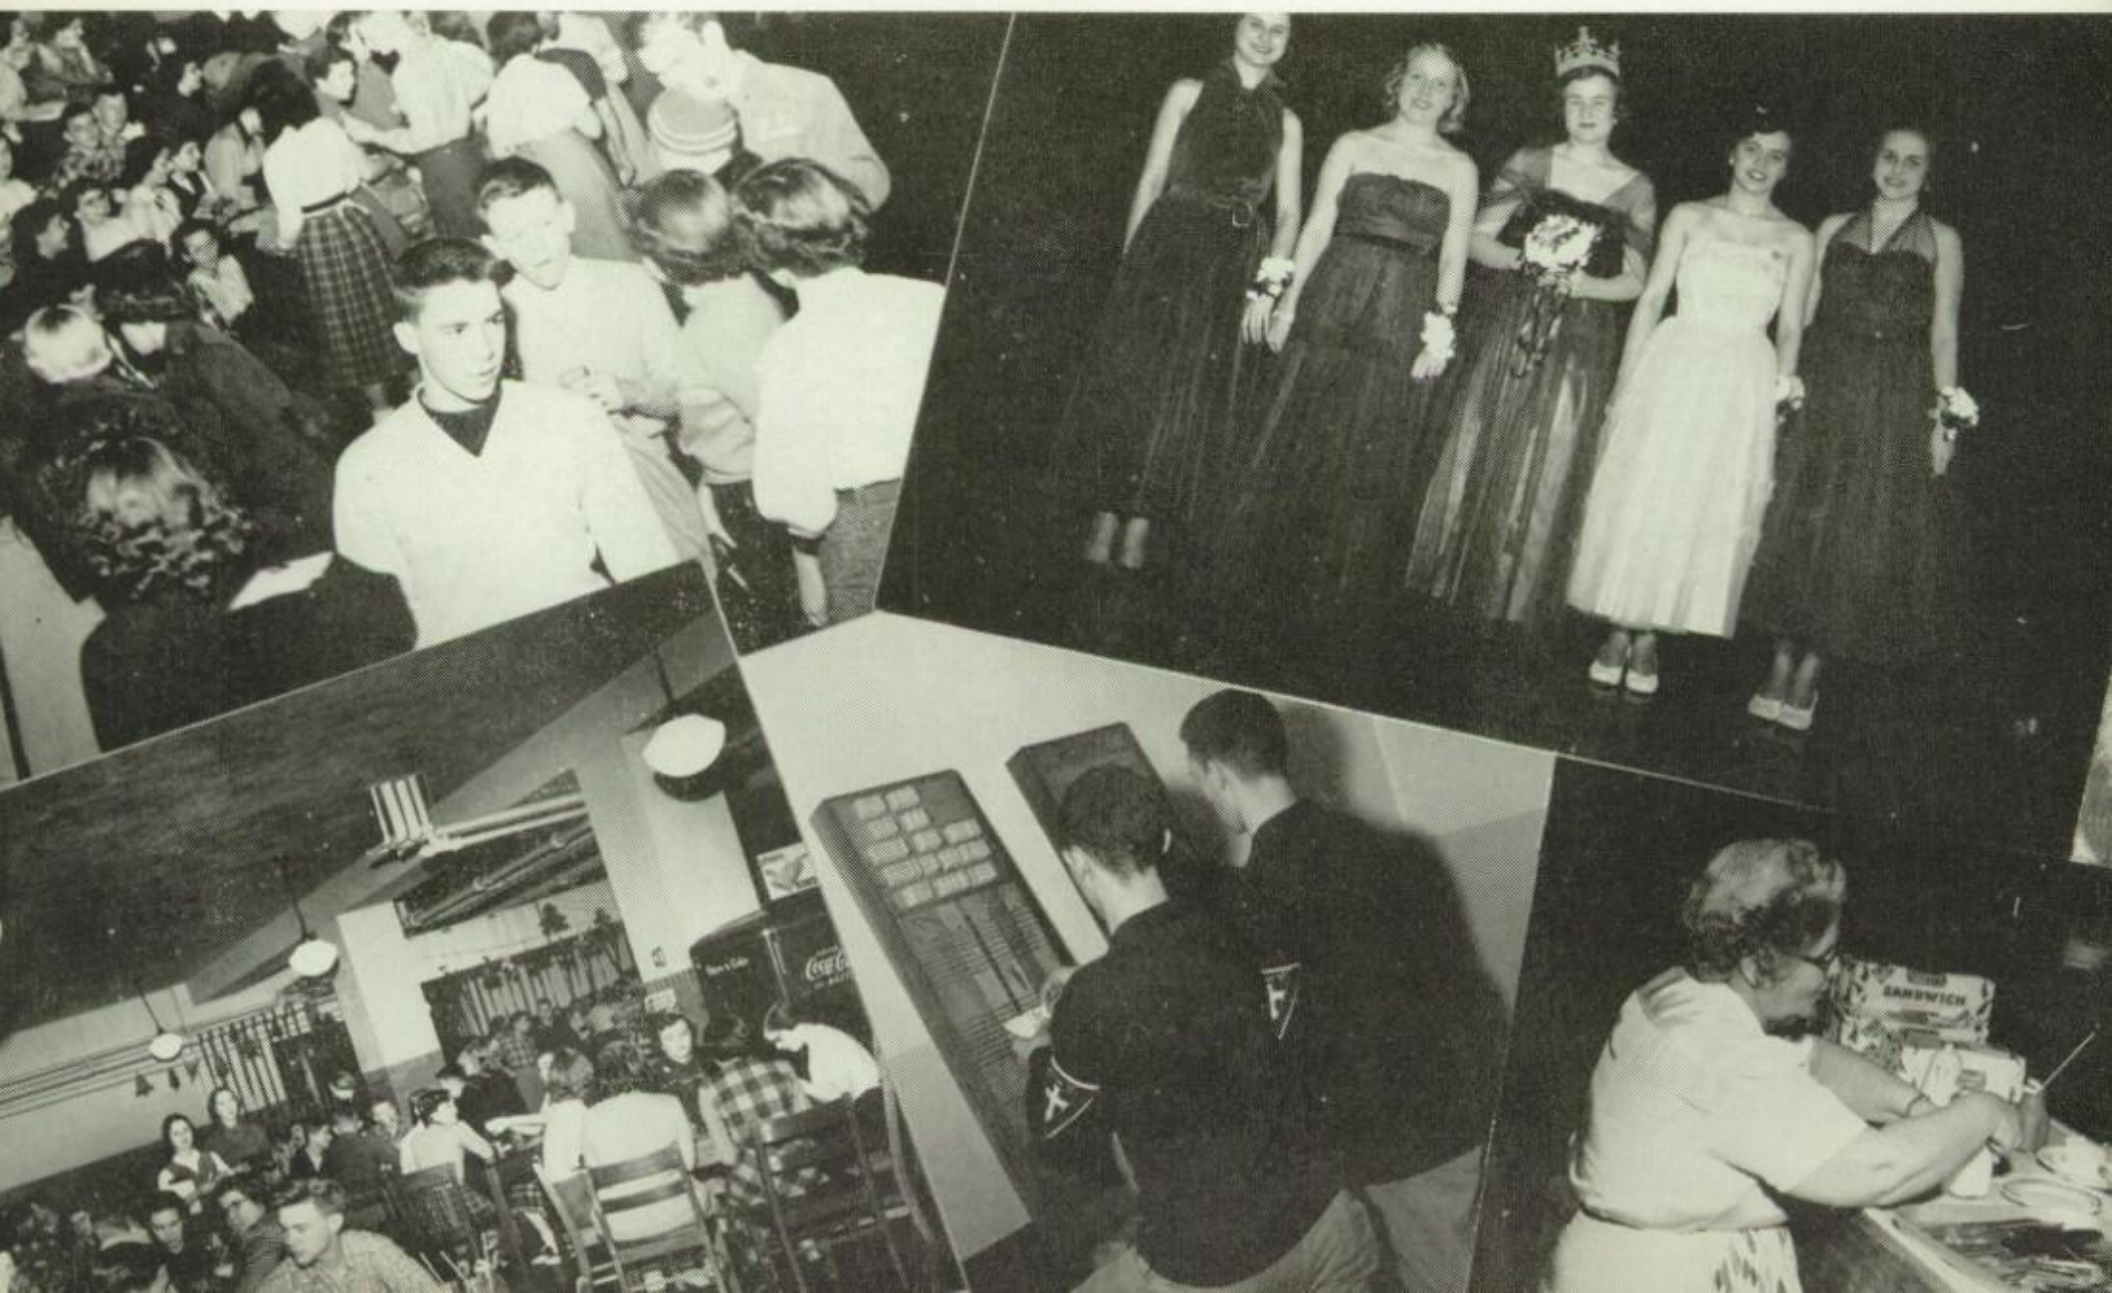

Participation in physical education teaches the girls sportsmanship and the ability to get along with one another. This is proved by the results shown in the Gym Exhibition which is presented every alternate year. To achieve this performance there must be co-operation among girls to work with one another well.

I saw the election . . . the good times enjoyed at the student faculty breakfast . . . the television convocation . . . the Homecoming Queen's court.

I saw the singers . . . dancers . . . imitations . . . band numbers . . . the girls' quartet . . . the finale . . . all a part of the big annual high school show. I also realize the hard work put into the show by the directors . . . master of ceremonies . . . artists. Congratulations, kids!
